

00 Explosion Take 12u Division ASA Pre-Summer Warmup in Johnson City

Written by Joe Birchfield

Monday, 08 April 2013 08:40 - Last Updated Wednesday, 31 July 2013 12:07

The '00 Knoxville Explosion ventured to Johnson City to play in its first true road test of the 2013 Spring Season competing in the ASA Pre-summer Warm up Tournament on Saturday, April 6, 2013. The competition was fierce and included teams from Tennessee, Virginia and North Carolina. The 8 team tournament field also included some of the Knoxville area's best teams in the White Lightning and Maryville Magic. The '00 Explosion were up to the challenge going 5-0 beating a very good New River Valley Hurricanes from Southwestern Virginia (Pictured) in the championship game casino online 5-1. The NRV Hurricanes were a class act and even got into the post-game festivities including Coach Joe doing the Harlem Shake and Gangam Style dancing..... The '00 Explosion outscored the competition 39-4. A special shout out to Maddie Sickau, our tournament MVP who hit another 2 home runs in this tournament! Next up, the SEAA Opener at the new Wear Valley Farm Park in Pigeon Forge, Tennessee on April 13-14. Great job everyone!