Explosion X stayed local this weekend and competed in the USA Queens of the Diamond in Knoxville, TN. After competing in pool play against Concord Stars, Explosion X got placed in the "10u A Division Bracket." Things started off slow in bracket and the girls just couldn't get going. They lost their first bracket and fell to the losers bracket. From there, they battled through and landed in the championship game, playing a "what if international" and bringing home some bling. Recap of their day: VS Concord Stars - win 16-0 VS Bluegrass Force X - lost 6-3 VS Bats 2028 - win 7-0

S Team Tennessee 2010 - win 6-4

VS Bluegrass Force X - win 7-1

VS Crusaders X - win 9-1

VS Crusader X - win 2-1

Congratulations Explosion X!!
